

Alan Chesick is General Counsel of Fortress Investment Group. Mr. Chesick joined Fortress in 2002, sits on its Executive Committee and oversees all legal matters relating to Fortress and the funds it manages. Fortress manages approximately $30 billion in equity in a variety of private equity funds, hedge funds, and other alternative asset vehicles. Mr. Chesick joined Fortress from Skadden Arps, where he began practicing law in 1988, specializing in mergers and acquisitions, cross-border capital markets work, venture capital work and advice to public companies in securities law matters. From 1999 to 2000 Mr. Chesick was general counsel of Webvan Group Inc., both before and following its initial public offering. Mr. Chesick received a J.D. from the Yale Law School, a B.A. in the History of Ideas from Brandeis University and has spent 8 of the last 23 years in monastic retreat in the Himalaya.