ABOUT UNIVERSITY OF NAVARRA:
The University was founded in 1952 by St Josemaría Escrivá de Balaguer. It is a "corporate work" of apostolate of Opus Dei, a personal prelature of the Catholic Church. It encourages Christians of all social classes to live consistently with their faith, in the middle of the ordinary circumstances of their lives, especially through the sanctification of their work. The spirit of Opus Dei is therefore present in the University life and activities with its Christian inspiration. The University is committed to the ideals of freedom of conscience, love for the Church, unity of life, and the fulfillment of Christian virtues. There are 27 official degrees and more than 300 postgraduate programs in 10 Schools, 2 Superior Colleges, IESE, 2 University Schools, ISSA, and other centers and institutions. The University Hospital, with almost 1,700 qualified professionals, takes care of more than 100,000 patients a year. In the latest University Annual Report, we find the following statistics about the 2004-2005 academic year:

- 14,820 enrolled students (10,153 undergraduates, 1,157 in doctoral programs and 3,510 in Master's programs, specializations and other programs).
- 815 professors, 687 associate professors and 422 teaching assistants.
- 969 professionals in administration and services (576 in Pamplona)
