

Program Description:

As part of Citi's commitment to recruiting high-caliber talent and in accordance with our Diversity Recruiting Mission Statement, Citi Institutional Clients Group (ICG) is proud to sponsor the Citi MBA Fellowship. The program will provide exceptional minority First-Year and Second-Year MBA students (women, lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, military veterans, people with disabilities and people of Black and Latino/Hispanic descent) with an opportunity to join the Institutional Clients Group (ICG) with financial support from the Firm.

Fellowship Opportunity:

First-Year MBA Students

- A paid summer opportunity in one of the Institutional Clients Group Associate programs during the period between the first and second years of business school
- A $25K stipend for the first year of business school (a portion may be taxable)
- An opportunity to receive an additional $25K stipend for the second year of business school, after successful completion of the summer internship and an accepted offer to join the firm full-time
- A required three-year commitment to continue work in ICG post-MBA completion

Second-Year MBA Students

- A $25K stipend for the second year of business school (a portion may be taxable)
- A required three-year commitment to continue work in ICG post-MBA completion

Requirements:

- Competitive GMAT scores
- Endorsement letter from a Professor or Manager
- Business school application
- Personal essay
- Resume
- GPA 3.2
- Must be authorized to work in the United States
- Must not require sponsorship for employment
- Acceptance and intention to attend one of the MBA programs from which ICG recruits or which is affiliated with our diversity partners
