MULT-UB 100 Commerce and Culture

This course explores representations of American business in literature, film, art, and architecture. These artistic texts, placed in various business milieus, act as resources for students to develop their writing and critical thinking skills. Three major writing assignments ask students to consider the role of commerce and institutions in three aspects of modern life: individual identity and destiny, expressions of culture, and as sites for social and individual transformation.

- While waiting on his/her BC score to arrive, Violet will enroll in a section of Calculus I.
- If Violet receives a 4 or 5 on BC calculus, she may apply the BC credit to fulfill Stern's Calc I requirement or may take a higher level math class (Calc II or higher – her AB score actually qualifies her).
- Stern faculty strongly encourage students to take a college-level math course at NYU, particularly those who plan to pursue a quantitative discipline

SAMPLE SCHEDULE – “VIOLET”

- With an AP BC score of 4 or 5, this student is able to apply credit to fulfill Stern’s Calculus I requirement, but the student may still opt to enroll in a fall math course. Even if she decides she will apply credit, she must still register for 16–18 units of actual courses for the fall.
- An AP AB or BC score of 4 or 5 qualifies this student to register for Microeconomics in their first semester. Students with an AB score will likely take Calculus I or higher concurrently in the fall semester.

FREQUENTLY ASKED FAQ (1 OF 6)

- What is the Cohort Leadership Project and how did it end up on my Fall 2013 schedule already (your future self asking on June 6th)?

- Answer: The Cohort Leadership Project, or CLP, is a mandatory fall course for Stern freshmen that meets Friday afternoons. More information on the course can be found on our site.

FREQUENTLY ASKED FAQ (2 OF 6)

- When will my senior-year AP scores be in the system?
 - Answer: The College Board traditionally releases the scores on/around July 1st. If you have marked NYU as a recipient of your scores, admissions should receive them in the first week of July, and they should be in your Albert record soon after that.

FREQUENTLY ASKED FAQ (3 OF 6)

- I know I did well; can't I register for Microeconomics without my AP scores being in the system yet?
 - Answer: NO! We hope you knocked it out of the park, but NYU must have official scores in the system in order for you to register for courses that requires an AP/exam score as prerequisite.

FREQUENTLY ASKED FAQ (4 OF 6)

- I don't have a qualifying SAT, ACT, SAT-II or exam score to register for Calculus I, but I've taken pre-Calc. How do I test into Calculus I or higher?
 - Answer: The Math department will offer Calc I placement exams on June 14th, 21st and during August Orientation. More information on RSVPing for the June exams can be found here.

FREQUENTLY ASKED FAQ (5 OF 6)

- I received a 4 or 5 on AP Stats. How do I test out of the 4-credit Stats class?
 - Answer: The Stats proficiency exam will be offered during August orientation. If you already have a score or expect to receive a 4 or 5, we'll release a study guide for the exam in early August.

FREQUENTLY ASKED FAQ (6 OF 6)

- What happens if I want to change my schedule after registration?
 - Answer: Technically, you have access to Albert and the ability to change your schedule from June 6th at 10am through the first week of classes.
 - That being said, WE DISCOURAGE DROPPING
 - Writing the Essay,
 - Texts & Ideas,
 - Cultures & Contexts, or
 - Natural Science I/II
 - courses after June 6th. If you do intend to make changes, please use the “Swap” function to avoid dropping a course, attempting to enroll in a new course only to find out you’re ineligible, and ultimately losing your original seat.
