International Student Supplement

This section must be completed fully by international applicants, i.e., non-U.S. citizens, including nonresident aliens (those holding F, J or trainee visas) and foreign government officials. The information contained in the section does not affect your potential of admission to NYU Stern.

If you are in the U.S., indicate the type of visa you currently hold: ________________________________ Sponsor: ________________________________

To obtain a student visa, the U.S. Federal Government requires you to declare the availability of funds for tuition and expenses for your first year. You will also be required to indicate the source(s) of funding for your second year. Failure to do so may result in the denial of a student visa.

For visa purposes, you should not include potential merit-based scholarships or loans as sources of funding to cover your business school expenses. However, international students at NYU Stern are considered for merit scholarships and are eligible to apply for private loans.

Can you completely support your first year of study at NYU Stern, estimated at US $65,000 for tuition and living expenses?  □ Yes  □ No

As required by U.S. Federal Government regulations, please indicate below your source(s) of funding for your tuition and expenses for your first year. Even if you cannot fully support your first year, indicate your sources of partial funding. Funding sources cannot include loans.

Required:

□ Self/Family

□ Employer Scholarship/Sponsorship

□ Other Funding Agency

(i.e., government scholarship)

All universities in the U.S. must now comply with the new SEVIS database created by the federal government. All non-U.S. citizens must provide a permanent international address below. If the mailing address you provided on Data Form 1 is a U.S. address, you must also provide a permanent, foreign address in your country of citizenship below.

The following essay questions give you the opportunity to more fully present yourself to the admissions committee and to provide insight into your experiences, goals and thought processes. Your essays should be written entirely by you. An offer of admission will be withdrawn if it is discovered that you did not write your essays. Please note the following:

- Essays 1, 2, and 4 must be typed and submitted on standard 8 1/2” x 11” paper, double-spaced, in 12 point font.
- Please adhere to the essay limits provided for each question.
- Label the top of each essay with the following:
  Name, SSN, Essay Number and Page Number
  Ex: Joe Applicant, 123 - 45 - 6789, Essay #1, Page 1

1. Professional Aspirations
   Think about the decisions you have made in your life. Describe the following:
   (2 pages maximum, double-spaced, 12-point font)
   (a) What choices have you made that led you to your current position?
   (b) Why pursue an MBA at this point in your life?
   (c) What is your career goal upon graduation from NYU Stern? What is your long-term career goal?

2. Fit with Stern
   The NYU Stern community is one of our strongest assets. Please answer the following questions about community:
   (2 pages maximum, double-spaced, 12-point font)
   (a) What is your personal experience with the Stern community? What actions have you taken to learn more about us?
   (b) How would you contribute to our community as a student?
   (c) How will you benefit personally and professionally from the Stern community?

3. Personal Expression
   Please describe yourself to your MBA classmates. You may use any method to convey your message (e.g. words, illustrations). Feel free to be creative.
   All submissions become part of NYU Stern’s permanent records and cannot be returned for any reason.
   We do not recommend submitting anything that must be viewed or played electronically, or that is perishable (e.g. food). If you submit a written essay, it should be 2 pages maximum, double-spaced, 12-point font.

4. Additional Information:
   Please provide any additional information that you would like to bring to the attention of the admissions committee. This may include gaps in employment, your undergraduate record, plans to retake the GMAT or any other relevant information (optional).
   If you are unable to submit a recommendation from your current supervisor, please explain your reason in this essay.

POLICY STATEMENT

Stern Policy of Nondiscrimination The University is committed to a policy of nondiscrimination and equal opportunity in every aspect of its relations with its faculty, students, and staff members, without regard to age, citizenship status, color, disability, marital or parental status, national origin, race, religion, gender or sexual orientation, or any other legally protected status.

Notice of Right to Change Information at Any Time The policies, requirements, course offerings, schedules, activities, tuition, fees, and calendar of the school and its departments and programs set forth in this publication do not form a contract of any kind and are subject to change without notice at any time at the sole discretion of the administration. Such changes may be of any nature, including, but not limited to, the elimination of the school, programs, classes or activities; the relocation or modification of the content of any of the aforementioned; and the cancellation of scheduled classes or other academic activities.
