What you need to do before the first day of class:

- Pay your enrollment deposit.
- Put the dates of Pre-Term on your calendar.
- Complete and submit the Pre-Term Registration Form.
- Submit a FAFSA online immediately if you haven't and would like a Federal loan (www.fafsa.ed.gov). It will take at least 6-8 weeks to be processed. Call the Financial Aid office (212-998-0790) or e-mail (fin-aid@stern.nyu.edu) if you have questions. Award letters will be sent at the end of the summer.
- Learn your NetID. Your NetID gives you access to Stern protected websites. It will be available one week after receiving your Admissions deposit.
- Study for and take the Quantitative Skills Assessment.
- Complete and return all Registration and Bursar forms by August 29, 2005.
- Take Sample Proficiency Exams to see whether you may be able to substitute electives for some core courses.
- Register for Proficiency Exams beginning July 1, 2005.
- Obtain your NYU ID card by the start of Fall classes.
- Check out your classmates: Class Database & Bulletin Board.
- Explore the rest of the Langone Program Website.
- Attend Pre-Term September 10 and 11, 2005.
