FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS
SPECIFICALLY WRITTEN FOR STERN FRESHMEN

How do I make an appointment to see my adviser?
In order to schedule an appointment with your adviser, please call (212-998-4020) or stop by the reception desk in the Advising Office (Tisch Hall suite 800). Please remember to complete your curriculum record prior to your appointment. Curriculum records can be obtained outside Tisch 800.

Reminder to Class of 2008 students: Brian Dunn advises students with a last name starting A-Ki. While students with last names starting Kj-Z are advised by Danielle Mitchell.

How do I bring in my AP, A-level, IB, or previously completed college credits?
Students wishing to bring in AP, A-level, or IB credit must complete the Advanced Standing Agreement form (available in the Advising Office).

Credit for Calculus (AB/BC), Macroeconomics, Microeconomics, a Natural Science (Biology, Chemistry etc.), or Statistics* may be used to satisfy General Education requirements.
*Please note: In order to bring in credit for Statistics students must take and pass the Statistics proficiency exam. Students must take the Statistics proficiency exam within the first 6 weeks of their first semester at NYU. For Class of 2008 students the deadline to take the exam was Oct. 22nd 2004.

Credits for all other subjects are applied towards a student's electives. Please consult with your adviser prior to bringing in any credit that does not directly satisfy a General Education requirement.

Students seeking to bring in credit for previous college work must submit an official transcript from the institution where the course work was taken as well as a syllabus or course description for the class(es). Credits will be applicable only if the content of the course is similar to the equivalent NYU course.

Is it possible to double major and minor?
Yes, the curriculum is structured to allow students to complete the requirements for up to two majors (excl. CPA Accounting) and one minor (in the College of Arts & Science).

Can I complete a major in the College of Arts & Sciences?
Stern students may only major within Stern. However, students may minor (except for Economics) within the College of Arts & Sciences (CAS). Please refer to the CAS Bulletin,
What are my study abroad options?
As a Stern student there are two study abroad programs (IBEX and NYU Study Abroad) available to you.

The International Business Exchange Program (IBEX) is a Stern-only exchange program we have with 16 business schools located throughout Australia, Asia, Europe, and Latin America. Students are eligible to participate in IBEX as early as the fall of their junior year. Please check the IBEX website for further details about the program including links to our exchange partners. Additionally, IBEX information sessions are held throughout the year. Please check the weekly News from the 8th Floor emails announcing upcoming information sessions. http://w4.stern.nyu.edu/Ug/nyuinternational-ibex.cfm?doc_id=56

The NYU Study Abroad program features NYU satellite campuses in such places as Florence, Ghana, London, Madrid, Paris, and Prague. Students studying at a NYU Study Abroad location take NYU classes with other NYU students. Students can participate in this program starting the fall of their sophomore year. Please check the NYU Study Abroad website for further details about the program and the sites - http://www.nyu.edu/studyabroad/

Can I take summer classes at another university?
If you are interested in taking a summer course at another university you should submit a course description/syllabus to your adviser for approval prior to registering for the course. Students taking a summer course at another university are advised to take elective courses. Please be advised that some Stern courses are offered in the summer at NYU. Note: Once you have earned 64 credits, all course work must be completed at NYU.
