Harvey P. Dale is the founding President and Director of Atlantic Philanthropies, a grant foundation with a focus on four fields: aging, disadvantaged children & youth, health of populations, and reconciliation & human rights. He has taught as a university professor of Philanthropy and the Law at New York University School of Law since 1977, and is also the Director of the National Center of Philanthropy and the Law at NYU. In addition to his work at Atlantic Philanthropies and NYU, Harvey currently serves as a Trustee to the Legal Resources Trust in South Africa and Chairman of the Friends of the South African Constitutional Court (USA), Inc. Harvey also consults for the American Law Institute and the Project on Nonprofit Organizations, and has consulted for Federal Income Tax Project, and International Tax Treaties. Harvey graduated from Cornell University in 1958 and received his J.D. from Harvard University Law School in 1961.