Business of Entertainment, Media and Technology
Joint Stern-Steinhardt-Tisch Minor

New York City is home to major sectors of the entertainment and media industries, including major media conglomerates, network television, independent film, book and magazine publishing, advertising, and two of the largest cable companies. This cross-school minor includes courses from Stern School of Business, Tisch School of the Arts, and Steinhardt School of Culture, Education, and Human Development. It provides a foundation in the business aspects of media and entertainment and how technology impacts these industries. Students take electives from areas that deepen their knowledge base and understanding of these industries.

The minor in the Business of Entertainment, Media and Technology will be earned by completing a minimum of 16 credits of the following courses below. Stern students cannot count a required course from the business core or for their major towards the minor.

A. Required 8 credits at Stern from the following courses:

- C55.0040, Entertainment & Media Industries (2 credits) (REQUIRED)
  Students are highly encouraged to take this course first because it serves as a foundation class for the study of this minor.

  Note: Steinhardt MCC students may take E59.1020, The Business of Media (4 credits) instead of C55.0040, but must still complete 8 credits at Stern as part of the minor.
