Stern's Core Values

Excellence, Unbound by Tradition

People choose us because we are bold, nimble, fearless, hip, edgy, and innovative – a School rooted in rigor, yet on the cutting edge.

IQ + EQ

Wisdom comes not only from the pursuit of knowledge but in creating an environment where all voices are heard and each member thrives.

Radically Responsible

The unequivocal belief in the power of business to improve society is built directly into our culture and curriculum.

Uncommonly Connected

With our NYC location and access to NYU's global network, we build deep connections with industry worldwide that yield both experiential learning projects and jobs.

Change. Lead It.

We create relevant and transformative experiences to help students learn to master ambiguity with competence. Executive MBA graduates come away armed with a set of skills they can leverage from the first day of class to their last day of work.

Change. Create it.

Earn Your MBA In Two Years, While You Work

The Executive MBA program is structured to enable students to earn an MBA in General Management from NYU Stern while still keeping up with their professional and personal responsibilities.

Classes start in August and are held one weekend a month - on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday - at NYU's convenient downtown DC location. Students complete 60 credits on this schedule and also participate in three required residencies and two class weekends in NYC.

Executive MBA students receive a high level of individualized attention. From meals to class materials, our dedicated Academic Affairs and Student Services team manages the logistical details so that students are free to focus on what matters most – work, life, and school.

Typical Daily Schedule

Students typically take two to three courses at a time, on an intensive basis, allowing them to master each new subject area before moving on to the next. Some coursework and optional events take place in the evenings of class weekends and in between class weekends.

Customize Your Curriculum to Your Goals

Today's business world demands talent with the skills and mindset to excel in environments that constantly change. NYU Stern provides the academic preparation you need to drive your capabilities to the next level.

The core curriculum, completed in Year One, provides a strong foundation in all the key areas of business administration. As part of the core curriculum, all students participate in a required Global Immersion Experience.

In Year Two students can customize their learning with a diverse portfolio of elective courses and the option to specialize in up to three areas of study. Students choose 12 electives with the opportunity to build on the foundation of the core curriculum and go deeper into advanced topics in subject areas or to simply explore different aspects of several different disciplines.

Global Immersion Experience

A far-reaching perspective is a necessity in today's global business environment.

In Year One, all students participate in a required week-long Global Immersion Experience (GIE) that provides exposure to other global business centers. Executive MBA students explore the business practices of dynamic markets through site visits and meetings with high-level executives in key market industries, government representatives, and members of the diplomatic community. Students can also elect to participate in a second GIE in Year Two.

Each international residency is a faculty-led course that is woven directly into the curriculum. Recent GIEs have visited Argentina, Poland, South Korea and UAE.
