

Business of Entertainment, Media and Technology

Joint Stern-Steinhardt-Tisch Minor

New York City is home to major sectors of the entertainment and media industries, including major media conglomerates, network television, independent film, book and magazine publishing, advertising, and two of the largest cable companies. This cross-school minor includes courses from Stern School of Business, Tisch School of the Arts, and Steinhardt School of Culture, Education, and Human Development. It provides a foundation in the business aspects of media and entertainment and how technology impacts these industries. Students take electives from areas that deepen their knowledge base and understanding of these industries.

Important policies:

- The minor in the Business of Entertainment, Media and Technology will be earned by completing a minimum of 16 credits of the following courses below.
- A minimum grade of C is required for all courses intended to count toward the BEMT minor, and the minimum overall GPA in the minor is 2.0.
 - *Due to the COVID-19 Pandemic of the Spring 2020 semester and subsequent temporary changes to grading policies, all BEMT students are eligible to count Spring 2020 courses with a Pass/Fail grading basis towards minor requirements if a passing grade is awarded. Pass/fail requests should be submitted through the student's home school. ****
- The 16 credit minimum is required and non-negotiable.
- Eight credits must be earned from Stern. The remaining eight credits must be earned from Tisch and/or Steinhardt.
- Some courses listed below may have pre-requisite courses that do not count towards the Minor. If the course is not listed below, it is not eligible to count.
- Note: Stern Undergraduate students cannot double count required business core or major courses toward this minor. For Non-Stern Students, please refer to your home school advising center's policies.

I. Choose eight required credits from Stern:
